

Future Rise Bank of East Africa

Rise Bank of East Africa is committed to delivering excellent banking services across the region through strong, well-organized departments that work together every day. Each department below has clear operational objectives that guide its daily activities, ensuring the bank runs efficiently, serves customers with excellence, stays fully compliant with all regulations, and grows consistently. These objectives are the foundation upon which Rise Bank of East Africa is built to last, to rise, and to lead.

Operational Objectives

Human Resources Department

Review the performance of every employee at least 2 times every month and reward those who perform well.

Make sure at least 85 out of every 100 employees are happy working at Rise Bank of East Africa.

Make sure at least 85% of Our employees are happy working at Rise Bank of East Africa.

Conduct quarterly training sessions for staff on customer service, compliance, and IT systems

Continuously attract and hire the most qualified and passionate banking professionals across East Africa, and keep them motivated

Functional requirements

- The system must allow HR managers to record and track employee performance reviews at least 2 times per month.
- The system must generate automatic reminders when a performance review is due.
- The system must send employee satisfaction surveys and calculate a satisfaction score. The target is 85% or above.
- The system must schedule and track quarterly training sessions for staff on customer service, compliance, and IT systems.

- The system must manage job applications, interviews, and hiring records for new employees.
- The system must store employee profiles including their qualifications, history, and performance scores.

Marketing and Business Development

Run at least 4 big marketing campaigns every year to attract new customers.

Make sure at least 80% of people in East Africa know the name Rise Bank of East Africa.

Create at least 10 new partnerships with businesses and government bodies every year.

Grow the total number of bank customers by 20% every year.

Always have at least 50,000 active followers on the bank's social media pages

Functional requirements

- The system must allow marketing staff to plan, launch, and track at least 4 major campaigns per year.
- The system must connect to social media platforms and monitor follower counts
- The system must record and manage partnership agreements with businesses and government organizations.
- The system must track the total number of registered customers and measure growth over time.
- The system must generate monthly reports showing how many new customers joined and where they came from.

Information Technology

Make sure all banking systems are working 99.9% of the time every day with no long breakdowns.

Keep the mobile app and internet banking available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

Check the security of all systems every month and fix any weak points within 7 days.

Add at least 2 new useful features to the mobile app or internet banking every year.

Functional requirements

- The system must monitor the uptime of all banking systems and alert IT staff if availability drops below 99.9%.
- The system must ensure the mobile app and internet banking platform are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- The system must run automated monthly security scans and report any vulnerabilities found.
- The system must track all security issues and ensure they are fixed within 7 days of being found.
- The system must keep a version history of all app features and record at least 2 new feature updates per year.

Risk and Compliance

Follow all Central Bank rules and anti-fraud laws 100% of the time with no exceptions.

Check and review all risks inside the bank every month and report findings to management.

Make sure every single customer account is fully verified before it is used.

Find and fully solve every fraud case within 72 hours of discovering it.

Make sure the bank never receives any fine or penalty from the Central Bank.

Functional requirements

- The system must check that all customer accounts are fully verified (KYC - Know Your Customer) before they can be used.
- The system must run monthly risk reviews and automatically send reports to senior management.
- The system must automatically flag suspicious transactions and create a fraud case within the system.
- The system must track each fraud case and ensure it is fully resolved within 72 hours.
- The system must store all regulatory compliance records and alert compliance officers before any deadline is missed.

Finance and Accounting Department

Prepare monthly financial statements accurately and on time.

Ensure 100% compliance with financial regulations and taxes.

Conduct internal audits quarterly to maintain financial integrity.

Monitor and report operational costs monthly, aiming to optimize efficiency.

Record and report customer feedback weekly to improve services.

Functional Requirements

- The system must automatically prepare monthly financial statements and make them available to authorized managers.
- The system must calculate and verify that all taxes and financial reports follow the rules
- The system must schedule and track quarterly internal audits.
- The system must monitor operational costs monthly and flag any budget overruns.
- The system must collect, store, and display weekly customer feedback reports for service managers.

Retail Banking / Customer Service

Answer 95% of calls and emails within 24 hours.

Resolve customer complaints within 48 hours.

Maintain 90% customer satisfaction rating across all channels.

Serve each customer within 5 minutes per transaction.

Maintain 100% accuracy in all teller transactions.

Process customer account requests (opening, closing, updates) within 24 hours.

Functional Requirements

- The system must log all customer calls, emails, and messages and ensure 95% are answered within 24 hours.
- The system must create and manage customer complaint tickets and track resolution time.
- The system must calculate customer satisfaction ratings regularly .

- The system must process all customer account requests such as opening, closing, and updating accounts within 24 hours.
- The system must ensure 100% accuracy in teller transaction records by validating each entry before saving.

THE LOAN DEPARTMENT (LENDING DEPARTMENT)

A bank's loan department manages the end-to-end process of lending money which includes evaluating borrower eligibility, underwriting risks, approving funds, and managing repayments.

It operates by assessing a borrower's creditworthiness (income, credit score, debt levels) and security (collateral) to determine if they can repay the loan

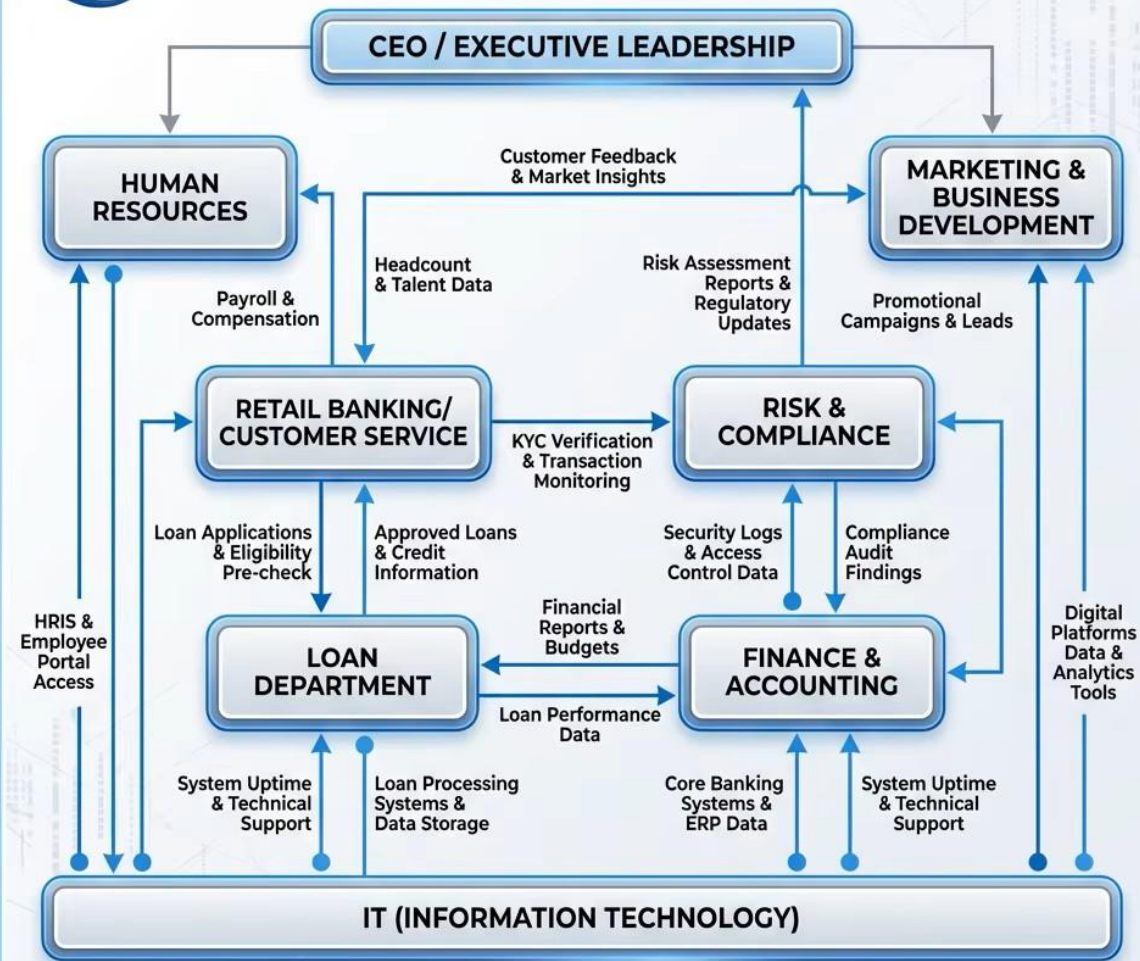

Functional Requirements

- The system must allow loan officers to input and review a borrower's income, credit score, and debt information.
- The system must automatically calculate a creditworthiness score based on the borrower's financial data.
- The system must store collateral details for secured loans and verify their value before approval.
- The system must track the full loan lifecycle: application, underwriting, approval, disbursement, and repayment.
- The system must send automatic reminders to borrowers when loan repayments are due.
- The system must flag overdue loans and escalate them to the Risk and Compliance module.

Rise Bank of East Africa

Organizational Data Flow Chart

Software Needed

Software	Purpose
Core Banking System	Manages all accounts, transactions, and banking operations
ERP System	Connects all departments (HR, Finance, IT, etc.) in one place
Mobile Banking App	Let's customers do banking from their phones
Internet Banking Portal	Web-based banking for customers on computers
CRM System	Manages customer relationships and feedback
Loan Management System	Handles the full loan process
Fraud Detection System	Automatically detects and flags suspicious transactions in real time
Identity Verification (KYC)	Verifies customer identities before account activation
Anti-Virus & Endpoint Protection	Protects computers and servers from cyberattacks
Data Encryption Tools	Keeps customer and financial data private and secure
Email Server (e.g., Microsoft Exchange)	For internal and customer communications
Video Conferencing (e.g., Microsoft Teams / Zoom)	For remote staff meetings and training sessions
HR Management Software (e.g., Workday)	For payroll, scheduling, and staff records
Reporting & Analytics (e.g., Power BI, Tableau)	For generating charts, reports, and dashboards
Social Media Management Tool	For monitoring and managing social media accounts

Database and Infrastructure Software

Software	Purpose
Database: Oracle DB	Stores all customer, financial, and operational data
Operating System: Linux and Windows Server	Runs on all bank servers
Cloud Platform: AWS or Microsoft Azure or Google Cloud	Hosts apps and provides backup and disaster recovery
Backup & Recovery Software	Ensures data is never lost in case of system failure

Hardware Tools

Server Infrastructure

Hardware	Specification	Purpose
Application Servers	Minimum 32-core CPU, 128 GB RAM, 1 TB SSD	Runs the core banking and ERP applications
Database Servers	Minimum 64-core CPU, 256 GB RAM, 10 TB SSD RAID	Stores and retrieves all bank data quickly
Web Servers	16-core CPU, 64 GB RAM, 500 GB SSD	Hosts the internet banking portal
Backup Servers	32-core CPU, 128 GB RAM, 20 TB HDD	Creates daily backups of all data
Disaster Recovery Server	Matches primary server specs	Takes over if the main server fails

Network Equipment

Hardware	Purpose
High-Speed Routers	Connects all departments and branches to the central system
Network Switches (Layer 3)	Manages internal traffic between servers and workstations
Firewalls (Hardware-based)	Blocks unauthorized access and cyberattacks from outside
Load Balancers	Spreads traffic evenly across servers so no single server crashes
Fiber Optic Cables	Provides high-speed connections between departments and data centers
UPS (Uninterruptible Power Supply)	Keeps all systems running during power outages

End-user Devices

Device	Who Uses It
Desktop Computers	All bank staff (tellers, managers, analysts)
Laptops	Senior managers and field officers
ATM Machines	Bank customers
Biometric Scanners	Security and KYC verification
Receipt Printers	Tellers at counters
CCTV / Security Cameras	Branch security monitoring
Smartphones / Tablets	Mobile banking users (customers)